Branding/Identity Design When we design your identity, we research; we question; we dig. Only then do we design--and we may even dig some more! In the end, the essence of your company will be distilled into a unique and memorable symbol that works across an array of mediums and is timeless in its design.

Collateral Design By far the widest category, this includes brochures, posters, packaging and other printed materials. Projects can range from one-color fliers to intricate four-color-plus brochures, complete with die-cuts, embossing and other techniques to grab attention. We will match your project goals, message, budget and audience with the right design and production solution, and use our experience and skill to walk the project through to completion.

Comic and Animated Cartoon DarDolphin DPC was built on providing high quality cartoon services for clients over the Middle east. We rely on creating fun, whimsical cartoon designs for our niche markets which are individuals and small mom and pop companies. We also create a large number of cartoon illustrations for internet ventures.
